

ASCUNSION DAY (21st)

Hello, Parishioners of Butcombe. How blessed we are to live here, riding out the 'lockdown' period.

Hallelujah, churches are now on the way to be re-opened – at present for one person to pray on behalf and for the community and global situation. I am privileged to have been asked to do so at St Michael's. I will attend most days for up to an hour, tolling a bell to signify my presence. I hope to establish a regular pattern soon.

My wish is for this to be a community journey of preparation to corporate worship. Please ring me with any prayer requests, or concerns – all will be treated in confidence, or slip a note under the Church door. The Church will remain locked throughout. I will observe strict sanitising procedures.

Tel: 01761 462601.

May God Bless you. Keep safe, keep well.
